

Position Announcement

PathStone is seeking a Case Manager GIVE to provide assistance to case management services for the GIVE initiative in Rochester, New York.

us

PathStone is a nonprofit organization based in Rochester, NY with a mission of building family and individual self-sufficiency by strengthening urban and rural communities. PathStone operates 12 lines of business in the areas of training and employment, health and safety, housing services and community development.

PathStone's SNUG Outreach program seeks to engage high-risk individuals who are causing violence in communities with high rates of violent crime, address the issues that may be causing high-risk individuals to engage in gun violence, and share with the community how violence is spread.

What sets PathStone apart from the rest?

- PathStone's two distinct lines of business—direct services and community and housing development—are rarely combined within one organization. This means that our staff are exposed to a broad number of programs and a variety of job functions.
- PathStone has a reputation for taking strategic risk. Our belief that “we don't know until we try” is why we have continuously developed innovative programs over the last 40 years.

you

You are looking for a challenge and a chance to change the world for the better. You know that social impact is as important a measure of corporate success as profitability. You want to use your creativity to find quicker, better and more cost-efficient ways to help people. You are ready to try on new hats and find new solutions to old problems. You want to make a difference in the lives of others.

What sets you apart from the rest? Specifically, you have the following skills, experience and/or education:

- Associates degree from an accredited university
- Experience working in the social services field
- 2+ years of experience working in or near the SNUG target areas
